NAU Award for Faculty Excellence in Global Learning (revised 2/23/22: deadline date moved to March 4, 2022)

Description

The award recognizes full-time faculty who work to enrich our curriculum by facilitating global learning experiences and engagement. The award is open to all full-time faculty of any track and rank or a team of full-time faculty members, who have implemented a collective project, innovation, or improvement of existing practices in support of global learning and engagement. The Office of the Provost and Center for International Education will provide a certificate and a fund of $1,000 that may be used for any allowable expense under university policy.

Applicants must demonstrate substantive commitment to global learning, as demonstrated through their teaching, scholarship, or service, and show evidence of effectiveness. Previous recipients of this award are eligible to apply again after 2 years.

Nomination Process

Faculty may self-nominate or nominate a colleague or team of colleagues. Students may nominate faculty members. The nomination packet (3 pages maximum) should be submitted electronically as a Word document or PDF to Provost@nau.edu by March 4, 2022, 5:00 pm. Please use the following subject line: "[Your last name], Global Learning Award application." The packet shall include a description of the contribution made and indicators of its positive impact on global learning or engagement. The award review committee with download the faculty member's CV from FAAR. No separate CV should be submitted but faculty should make sure their FAAR CV is up-to-date.

Review of applications

A committee of academic unit leader, leaders from the Center for International Education, and representatives from the Office of the Provost will review the applications and make a recommendation to the Provost who will choose the recipient(s).
