

Club ADA and the Community for Disability Access and Design's Biannual

Accessibility Expedition

Join students, staff, faculty, and alumni for an engaging and active exploration of NAU's North Campus buildings and pedways. From the Student Academic Services (SAS) building to the College of Education and Cline Library, walk through autumn leaves with members of NAU's disability community to discuss accessibility and accessible design. See what has been done to help the campus become more equitable and inclusive for all university community members and the barriers that may still exist.
