

Digital Accessibility Workshop Series

Workshops will be held virtually Fridays from 10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. throughout the month of October.

Teams meeting link:
<https://tinyurl.com/DPHM-Digital>

10/02

Jordan Garcia

The Canvas Image Challenge: Alt Text and Ally

Taking part in the Canvas Image Accessibility Challenge to spend one hour during the month of October to address the alt text on images in your course shells but need some help to get started? Join Instructional Designer, Jordan Garcia as he walks you through the basics of using Ally within Canvas to identify missing alt text and then shows you how to write and add it to your images.

10/09

Charlese Bedford

Did You Add Alt Text? Alt Text: The Basics...Kind of

You've added all your photos and links. Oh, snap! Did you add alt text? Participants will learn how to write simple and meaningful alt text for their images and links. Topics covered: basic alt text, context-based alt text, link alt text, and how to write an AI prompt to generate alt text.

10/23

Lauren
Copeland-Glenn
Sean Kugler

Getting Started With Venngage

As part of the university's longstanding commitment to Universal Design and digital accessibility, Venngage will be available to the entire campus community! Join us to learn how easy it is to get started with Venngage to create ADA accessible content that can be used by everyone including people with disabilities.

10/30

Lauren
Copeland-Glenn
Sean Kugler

Presenting Inclusively

Are you reaching everyone in your audience during a presentation? Explore and learn how to create accessible presentations to cultivate inclusion, belonging and empower diverse voices to better engage every part of your audience.