

2023-2024 Annual Consumer Information Notice

The Higher Education Opportunity Act requires colleges and universities participating in federal student aid programs to make certain information readily available to consumers on an annual basis.

Information is emailed to students and staff, through various disclosures, at their registered NAU account. This annual notice provides summaries of all required consumer information, along with links to find more detailed information online. For a printed copy of any disclosure, please contact the Student Service Center in the Student Academic Services building, room 103, or via email at servicecenter@nau.edu.

Consumer information disclosures fall into several categories. See below for information on each required topic:

General Institutional Information

- Accreditation, Approval, and Licensure of Institution and Programs
- Career and Job Placement Services
- Constitution Day
- Copyright Infringement Policies and Sanctions, Computer Use, and File Sharing
- Cost of Attendance
- Educational Programs
- Facilities and Services for Students with Disabilities
- Faculty
- Instructional Facilities
- Methods to File Complaints
 - Non-Arizona distance education student or non-instructional complaints
 - Formal Student Complaints at NAU
 - Complaints of discrimination or harassment
- Net Price Calculator
- Privacy of Student Records – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- State Authorization
- Student Activities
- Student Diversity
- Teacher Preparation Program Report
- Textbook Information
- Transfer Articulation Agreements
- Transfer Credit Policies
- Tuition Refund Policy and Requirements for Withdrawal
- Voter Registration

Health and Safety

- Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Programs
- Campus Security Policies, Crime Statistics, and Crime Log
- Fire Safety Policies, Fire Statistics, and Fire Log (On-Campus Student Housing Facilities)
- Information for Crime Victims
- Missing Student Notification
- Immunization Policies

Student Financial Assistance

- Arizona Student Loan Code of Conduct for Education Loans
- Assistance Available from Federal State, Local, and Institutional Programs
- Assistance for Study Abroad
- Entrance Loan Counseling for Student Borrowers
- Exit Loan Counseling for Student Borrowers
- Preferred Lender Agreements and Lists
- Withdrawal and Return of Federal Student Aid

Student Outcomes – Student Right-to-Know Act and Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act

- Alumni Wages Report
- Graduate and Professional Education Placement for Graduates
- Graduation Rates by Gender, Ethnicity/Race
- Graduation Rates for Pell Grant Recipients
- Graduation Rates for Students Receiving Athletics-Related Student Aid
- Intercollegiate Athletic Program Participation Rates and Financial Support Data
- Retention Rates
- Retention Rates for Pell Grant Recipients
- Transfer-Out Rates
- Transfer-Out Rates for Students Receiving Athletics-Related Student Aid

General Institutional Information

Accreditation, Approval, and Licensure of Institution and Programs

Responsible office: Vice President of University Strategy

Universities and colleges in the United States obtain accreditation from non-governmental bodies that are recognized by the U. S. Secretary of Education as being reliable authorities to evaluate the quality of higher education. Northern Arizona University's accreditation through the Higher Learning Commission extended through academic year 2027-2028.

Career and Job Placement Services

Responsible department: Career Development

NAU Career Development empowers students and alumni to confidently navigate their careers as citizens of an evolving and global world.

Constitution Day

Responsible departments: Dean of Students

NAU hosts a variety of events on or about September 17th each year, in observance of Constitution Day.

Copyright Infringement Policies and Sanctions, Computer Use, and File Sharing

Responsible department: Information Technology Services (ITS)

Students may not copy, download, or share software, documents, or files protected by copyright using the university's computing resources, unless granted written permission from the copyright holder.

Violations of copyright law may result in the university revoking access to computing resources, including computer labs and network connections. Those who violate copyright law are subject to criminal and civil legal action by federal authorities and copyright holders, as well as disciplinary action under the terms of the Student Code of Conduct.

Cost of Attendance

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

A student's cost of attendance (COA) is the total cost of attending NAU for one academic year. It includes direct costs of tuition and fees, room, board (meals), books and supplies, as well as indirect costs of transportation and personal expenses. Students cannot receive funding beyond their COA.

Educational Programs

Responsible department: Office of Curriculum and Assessment

Students can view information on all academic programs, courses, academic policies, and degree program learning outcomes in the Academic Catalog.

Facilities and Services for Students with Disabilities

Responsible department: Disability Resources

Disability Resources (DR) leads collaborations with students, faculty, staff, and the campus community to cultivate a universally designed environment, and facilitates the removal of existing barriers for the full inclusion of people with disabilities.

We ensure access through design, services and accommodations at no cost to all Northern Arizona University students and employees with disabilities.

Examples of a few of the services and accommodations provided include:

- Priority registration
- Access to assistive technology devices and software
- Collaboration with the Office of Housing and Residence Life in the provision of housing accommodations
- Distraction reduced testing center
- Time extensions on exams and quizzes
- Print matter in alternate format
- Note-taking
- Communication Access Real-Time Translation (CART)
- Sign Language Interpreting

Faculty

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about faculty. Additional information can be obtained from the Office of the Provost or through individual academic departments' webpages.

Instructional Facilities

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about instructional facilities.

Methods to File Complaints

Responsible departments: State Authorization Compliance, Office of Student Affairs, and the Equity and Access Office

NAU is dedicated to treating all individuals fairly and respectfully. Those wishing to file a formal complaint at NAU have a variety of options. While it is recommended that they contact the appropriate department head(s) directly first, individuals with one of the following complaints may file at any time:

- Non-Arizona distance education students or student non-instructional complaints
- Formal student complaints may be filed with NAU, the Arizona Board of Regents, or the Higher Learning Commission.
- Complaints of discrimination or harassment may be filed through NAU's Equity and Access Office.

Net Price Calculator

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

The net price calculator provides estimated net price information (estimated cost of attendance minus estimated grant and scholarship aid) to current and prospective students and their families. Figures are based on what similar students paid in a previous year.

Privacy of Student Records – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\)

Responsible department: Office of the Registrar

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 grants students the rights to inspect and review their education records, request and amendment to or challenge the accuracy of their records, prevent unauthorized disclosure of their records, complain to the U.S. Department of Education about a FERPA violation, and waive their FERPA rights in writing. FERPA mandates how educational records may be released and to whom, with or without the student's consent.

State Authorization

Responsible department: State Authorization Compliance

State Authorization is the process of gaining approval from other states to operate within their borders. The purpose of state authorization is consumer protection. Northern Arizona University participates in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). NAU is authorized to provide distance education, including online classes, continuing education opportunities, field trip experiences, and "experiential" activities to students located in other states that participate in NC-SARA. As of July 2023, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and all states except for California are members of NC-SARA. Students located in California can participate in NAU's distance education offerings.

Student Activities

Responsible department: Campus Services and Activities

Campus Services and Activities offers a wide range of services and facilities to students across campus. Students can participate in campus events or reserve space for their own events. Additional information about clubs and organizations on campus can be found through the Dean of Students.

Student Diversity

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about student diversity.

Teacher Preparation Program Report

Responsible department: Professional Education Programs

NAU Professional Education Programs (PEP) coordinates the assessment, accreditation, and student teaching for NAU's four colleges offering initial teacher preparation and advanced education programs that prepare graduates to work in P-12 settings.

Textbook Information

Responsible department: Northern Arizona University Bookstore

Textbooks and course materials required for each course can be found through the NAU Bookstore's website. Students are not required to purchase books and materials through NAU; each required or recommended material is listed with the title, author's name, edition, and ISBN.

Transfer Articulation Agreements

Responsible department: Vice Provost for Academic and Workforce Alliances

Articulation agreements are formal agreements (or some would call a partnership) between two or more colleges and universities documenting the transfer policies for a specific academic program or degree in general.

Transfer Credit Policies

Responsible department: Vice Provost for Academic and Workforce Alliances

To meet the requirements of a particular degree plan, students may use transfer credit from other institutions. Transcripts are reviewed to determine the number of units accepted and how they will apply toward satisfying NAU Liberal Studies, diversity, major, minor and/or certificate requirements. Course equivalencies are established based on the alignment of learning outcomes and when the course was taken.

Tuition Refund Policy and Requirements for Withdrawal

Responsible department: Student and Departmental Account Services (SDAS)

Students withdrawing or changing their residency classification will receive an appropriate tuition refund after all proper approvals and forms have been processed with the respective departments and Student and Departmental Account Services (SDAS) is notified. Students are encouraged to contact several offices on campus if withdrawing from the university.

Voter Registration

Responsible department: Associated Students of Northern Arizona University (ASNAU)

Voter registration is a program aimed at facilitating and increasing voter registration among NAU students (both AZ residents and non-residents).

Health and Safety

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Programs

Responsible departments: Human Resources and the Health Promotion Office

Northern Arizona University is committed to providing a healthy educational environment, consistent with university policies and free from unlawful acts. As such, the university is taking this opportunity to inform all students, faculty, and staff of the health risks, university policies, university and legal sanctions, and the prevention/intervention programs associated with alcohol and other drug abuse. There are several resources for students as well as resources for faculty and staff.

Campus Security Policies, Crime Statistics, and Crime Log

Responsible department: University Police

NAU complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, or "Clery Act"—a federal statute requiring all colleges and universities that participate in federal financial aid programs to compile crime statistics from their campuses and provide safety information. The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report includes Clery reportable crime statistics for the three most recent completed calendar years and disclose procedures, practices, and programs the university uses to keep students and employees safe, including:

- How students and others should report crimes or other emergencies occurring on campus
- Security of and access to campus facilities
- Security awareness and crime prevention programs
- Campus law enforcement and security
- Alcohol and drugs
- Dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking
- Obtaining registered sex offender information

If you would like a free paper copy of the report, please contact the NAU Police Department Records Section at (928) 523-8884 or stop by the department at 525 E Pine Knoll Drive in Flagstaff.

NAU PD maintains a Daily Crime and Fire Log, which lists all the criminal incidents, alleged criminal incidents, and on-campus student housing fires reported to the department during the most recent 60-day period. The Daily Crime and Fire Log is available both online and in a hard copy version, which is available for public inspection, free of charge, at the NAU Police Department.

Fire Safety Policies, Fire Statistics, and Fire Log \(On-Campus Student Housing Facilities\)

Responsible department: University Police

NAU releases its Fire Safety Report combined with the Clery Act – required Annual Security Report. The purpose of this report is to disclose fire safety policies and procedures related to on-campus student housing and to disclose statistics for reported fires that occurred in those facilities.

NAU PD maintains a Daily Crime and Fire Log, which lists all the criminal incidents, alleged criminal incidents, and on-campus student housing fires reported to the department during the most recent 60-day period. The Daily Crime and Fire Log is available both online and in a hard copy version, which is available for public inspection, free of charge, at the NAU Police Department.

Information for Crime Victims

Responsible department: Campus Health Services, Equity and Access Office, and Title IX Coordinator
NAU offers many services on-campus to victims of crime, as well as information about off-campus services.

Missing Student Notification

Responsible department: Campus Living

It is the policy of Northern Arizona University to investigate any report of a missing resident student (an enrolled student who lives in on-campus housing). After investigating a missing person report, should the NAUPD determine that the student can be designated a missing person, the Office of Student Life (i.e. the Dean of Students or their designee) will contact the student's designated emergency contact number no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing, and (when the student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated) will contact the student's custodial parent or guardian.

Immunization Policies

Responsible department: Campus Health Services

To safeguard the health of the NAU population, all new and transfer students attending the Flagstaff Mountain campus are required to provide proof of immunity to measles, mumps and rubella (MMR) – for all students born after December 31, 1956. Before a student can register, they are required to show proof of measles, mumps and rubella vaccinations or a lab test showing proof of immunity to the measles, mumps and rubella.

Student Financial Assistance

Arizona Student Loan Code of Conduct for Education Loans

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

This code of conduct was developed by the Arizona Attorney General's Office in conjunction with universities and colleges in the State of Arizona. NAU supports and complies with these provisions.

Assistance Available from Federal, State, Local, and Institutional Programs

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

Financial assistance is available from a wide variety of sources. Examples include, but are not limited to: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Direct Loans, Federal Work-Study, University Grant, merit tuition scholarships, private donor scholarships, and private loans. The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid website has information on all aid types, including eligibility criteria and deadlines, on its website.

Assistance for Study Abroad

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

NAU encourages students to participate in NAU Education Abroad and National Student Exchange opportunities. The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid will help students find a program that best suits their financial aid options.

Entrance Loan Counseling for Student Borrowers

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

Before receiving a disbursement of a Federal Direct Loan, the Federal Government requires students to complete entrance counseling to ensure that they understand the responsibilities and obligations they are assuming.

Exit Loan Counseling for Student Borrowers

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

Exit counseling provides important information to prepare student to repay their federal student loan(s). Students who have received a subsidized, unsubsidized, or graduate PLUS loan under the Direct Loan Program must complete exit counseling each time they:

- Drop below half-time enrollment
- Graduate
- Withdraw from the university

Preferred Lender Agreements and Lists

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid does not recommend, promote, or endorse any lenders, nor does it have preferred lender arrangements or lists.

Withdrawals and Return of Federal Student Aid

Responsible department: Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid

Withdrawing from all classes at NAU will require a recalculation of a student's financial aid. The impact on aid will depend on the type of withdrawal (official or unofficial), the types and amounts of aid, and the date of withdrawal.

Student Outcomes – Student Right-to-Know Act and Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act

Alumni Wages Report

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, and provides data to state agencies, including data about alumni earnings.

Graduate and Professional Education Placement for Graduates

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, and provides data to state agencies, including data about education placement.

Graduation Rates by Gender, Ethnicity/Race

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about student graduation rates.

Graduation Rates for Pell Grant Recipients

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about Pell Grant recipients.

Graduation Rates for Students Receiving Athletics-Related Student Aid

Responsible department: Athletics

NAU Athletics maintains a variety reports about student athletes, including graduation rates.

Intercollegiate Athletic Program Participation Rates and Financial Support Data

Responsible department: Athletics

NAU Athletics maintains a variety reports about student athletes, including data for the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act.

Retention Rates

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about student retention rates.

Retention Rates for Pell Grant Recipients

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about Pell Grant recipients.

Transfer-Out Rates

Responsible department: Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics

The Office of Strategic Planning, Institutional Research, and Analytics maintains a variety of reports about campus, including data about transfer-out rates.

Transfer-Out Rates for Students Receiving Athletics-Related Student Aid

Responsible department: Athletics

NAU Athletics maintains a variety reports about student athletes, including transfer-out rates.