

Margaret Kimpton Scholarship for Native American Students Application 2019-2020

Please print legibly.

The Office of Native American Initiatives (ONAI) is offering the Margaret Kimpton Scholarship for Native American Students. The scholarship is awarded on an annual basis. Students who continue to meet the scholarship criteria may reapply. Student must be enrolled as a full time NAU student, be in good academic and financial aid SAP standing, have a cumulative 2.70 minimum GPA, and enrolled in a federally recognized tribe. Applicants are also asked to include a one page letter of interest describing need and how the scholarship will further your academic goals. You will be contacted within 7 business days after you have submitted a complete application to arrange an interview with the scholarship committee.

The student must attach the following 5 documents (omission may delay application processing):

- ☐ Class schedule for current term (printed from LOUIE)
- ☐ Copy of LOUIE page with financial aid summary listing award(s)
- ☐ Tribal enrollment verification (copy of CIB, membership card, etc.)
- ☐ 1 page Letter of interest describing need and how the scholarship will further your academic goals. Letter to be emailed to Ora.Marek-Martinez@nau.edu, with "Margaret Kimpton Scholarship for Native American Students Letter of Interest" in subject line.
