

NAU Timely Warning / Crime Alert (CA# 2020-11)Assault / Harrassment Case # N20-01025

On Wednesday, November 11th, 2020, 3 female students reported they were harassed and assaulted by an unidentified male subject they had met at a local restaurant and exchanged Instagram ID's with. After their initial meeting, the victims agreed to meet the suspect off campus for coffee. The suspect told the victims that they could either "hook up or take photos". The suspect repeatedly touched the victims even after being asked to stop and at one point he put his hands under one of the victim's sweatshirts and slapped her on her buttocks. The suspect also tried to convince the victims to get in his vehicle. The group relocated to north campus where the suspect continued his unwelcomed touching until the victims made it clear he was unwelcome to leave with them and they left the area.

Suspect Description: Unidentified Hispanic male, early 20's, thin build, dark "5 o'clock shadow", hair is shaved on the sides and back with bleach blonde hair on top, wearing clear framed glasses, a short sleeved white t-shirt with a red checker pattern on the front, black overall style snow bibs, black boots and a black wrist watch. Goes by the name "Guillermo".

If you have any information regarding this incident, contact the NAU Police Department or call Silent Witness.
