

OFFICE OF
THE PROVOST

NAU Award for Faculty Excellence in Global Learning
Deadline for applications: March 4, 2024

Description

The award recognizes full-time faculty who work to enrich our curriculum by facilitating global learning experiences, and engagement and who have implemented a collective project, innovation, or improved existing global learning practices. All full-time faculty of any track/rank or a team of full-time faculty members are eligible to apply. The Office of the Provost and Center for International Education will provide a certificate and a fund of $1,000 that may be used for any allowable expense under university policy.

Applicants (individual or team) should demonstrate a strong commitment to global learning, as demonstrated through their teaching, scholarship, or service, illustrating evidence of effectiveness. Previous recipients of this award are eligible to apply again after 2 years.

Nomination Process

Faculty may self-nominate or nominate a colleague or team of colleagues. Students may nominate faculty members. The nomination packet (3 pages maximum) should include a description of the contribution(s) made and indicators of its positive impact on global learning or engagement. The award review committee will download the faculty member's CV from FAAR (please make sure this is up to date).

Submission Deadline

Applications should be submitted as PDFs to Associate Vice Provost of Faculty Affairs, Dr. Sara Rinfret (sara.rinfret@nau.edu) by March 4, 2024, 5:00 pm. Please use the following subject line: "[Your last name], Global Learning Award application."

Review of applications

A committee of an academic unit leader, leaders from the Center for International Education, and representatives from the Office of the Provost will review the applications. The committee makes a recommendation to the Provost who will choose the recipient(s).
