

DISABILITY PRIDE AND HERITAGE MONTH EVENTS

VIRTUAL ACCESSIBILITY SCAVENGER HUNT

October 1 – 31

Join the Commission on Disability Access and Design (CDAD) and NAU4All for our second annual virtual accessibility scavenger hunt. Complete each task to find the clues for your chance to learn about accessibility in our virtual environment and enjoy incentives along the way.

nau.edu/virtualscavengerhunt

CODY CLARK MAGIC

October 12 | 2:30 PM |

Eastburn Room 190

The Institute for Human Development and the Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council welcomes Cody Clark for this year's Disability Pride and Heritage Month. Cody uses magic to empower others to recognize their own uniqueness. Cody was diagnosed with Autism when he was fifteen months old, and he uses his empathy and understanding of the community to make everyone at each show feel heard. His combination of Autism Awareness, Self-Advocacy, and, of course, magic, will leave you with a different way of thinking!

ACCESSIBILITY SCAVENGER HUNT

October 15 | 1 – 3 PM | SAS Building

Join students, staff, faculty, and alumni for an engaging and active exploration of NAU's North Campus through history and design. From the Student Academic Services building to the Aquatic and Tennis Complex, walk through autumn leaves with True Blue Ambassadors and members of NAU's disability community to discuss how the face of campus has changed. See what has been done to help the campus become more equitable and inclusive for all university community members.

SOUND OF METAL

October 19 | 7 PM |

CAL/SBS Film Series, Cline Library

Commemorate Disability Pride and Heritage Month with the story of heavy metal drummer Ruben Stone (Ahmed), and his struggle to navigate life and find his identity as he begins to lose his hearing. The film has been heralded as an evocative look at the experiences of the deaf community. Directed by Darius Marder; Starring Riz Ahmed, Olivia Cooke, and Paul Raci; 2019, 120 min., R

SQUIRMY AND GRUBS

October 20 | 5 PM | Zoom

Much of society believes people with disabilities cannot be valuable partners. Shane and Hannah share the hilarious ups and downs of their relationship to disprove this damaging concept. With over 865,000 YouTube followers and over 146 million views, Squirmy and Grubs (Shane and Hannah Burcaw) identify and break down the various damaging misconceptions society has about living with a disability. You'll laugh and cringe at their real-world encounters with ignorance. Join us.

Register in advance: <https://tinyurl.com/bbrdh8cr>

WORKSHOP SERIES: ACCESSIBILITY IN DESIGN

OCTOBER 1, 8, 22, 29 | 1:30 – 2:30 PM | ZOOM

Workshops will be held virtually Fridays from 1:30 – 2:30 p.m. October 1, 8, 22, 29. Zoom Meeting, ID: 822 7903 0036, Password: DESIGN

CONVERSATION ABOUT DISABILITY & DIVERSITY

October 27 | 4:30 PM | Zoom

Everything you wanted to know about disability, but were too afraid to ask! Join Professor Matthew Wangeman and John McDermott as they host a dialogue about disability that values openness, honesty, and guests who come to learn!

Register in advance: <https://tinyurl.io/4qB0>

7TH ANNUAL SITTING VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

October 28 | 5:30 PM | HLC South Gym

For more information, visit:
in.nau.edu/cdad/dphm

Sponsored by:

NAU NORTHERN ARIZONA
UNIVERSITY

Student Activities Council

The Commission on Disability Access and Design,
NAU4All, TASH, and the Institute for Human Development