Community & Department Updates

☑ LGBTQA Resources and Support: ○ Week of 11/14 is Trans Awareness Week. ■ Trans Resource Fair; purpose was for trans students to meet providers and learn about resources at NAU. 11 people were in attendance.

- Had a campfire on 11/17, with an attendance of 23 people.
- Reel Talk: showed "Out in the Night" at IMS and had about 45 people in attendance.
- Candlelight Vigil is Sunday 11/20 from 6-8pm, at the Union. A trans-identified community member will be doing a speech, and there is also open mic if anyone wants to share.

○ IMS Focus Group: was on 11/9 and 11/10, to talk about services and events students would like to see offered. Low attendance, but good information gathered.

☑ Information Technology Services:

- ITS' Information Security Director, Lanita Collette, has offered to the LGBTQIA Commission to be a "mouth piece" to bring back questions and concerns that the Commission has to the ITS Administration staff.
- ITS is currently hiring for an "Identity and Access Management Team," that will be tasked with surveying the campus and working with other VPs on how to manage/maintain/codify the data.
- In partnership with LGBTQA Resources and Support: Free HIV Testing and $20 STI Testing happened on 11/2 at the University Union. Had about 94 students in attendance.
