Getting a job is more than just experience on a resume. Employers are looking for Transferable Skills that you can develop now through work experience, classes, volunteering, and other activities.

The National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) reports yearly on the Transferable Skills employers are looking for in new college graduates. This graph shows the top 20 skills based on data collected during the Job Outlook Survey 2017.

---

Top Skills

1. Ability to Work in a Team
2. Problem Solving Skills
3. Written Communication Skills
4. Strong Work Ethic
5. Verbal Communication Skills
6. Leadership
7. Initiative
8. Analytical/Quantitative Skills
9. Flexibility/Adaptability
10. Detail Oriented
11. Interpersonal Skills
12. Technical Skills
13. Computer Skills
14. Organizational Ability
15. Strategic Planning
16. Friendly/Outgoing Personality
17. Tactfulness
18. Creativity
19. Entrepreneurial Skills
20. Foreign Language Fluency

---

nau.edu/career