

Camp Verde Hikes

Chasm Creek Trail

- Distance: 12.4 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 3228ft
- Difficulty rating: 5
 - This trail is for the advanced hikers looking for a challenge. Get ready to get your heart pumping and legs burning with this hard-hitting trail. Pack snacks and lots of water for a full day of hiking. Enjoy the views and wildlife on this seldom used trail.

Copper Canyon Loop

- Distance: 3.9-miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 387ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
 - This hike is a great way to get out and about while enjoying the great views it has to offer! Whether it be trail running, walking the dogs, or a solo hike, this quiet trail is a great way to enjoy a beautiful morning or evening hike. This trail in the summer can get very HOT.

Fossil Creek Waterfall Trail

- Distance: 2.6 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 249ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
 - The Fossil Creek trail is a gorgeous trail leading down to a waterfall that provides a great spot for a picnic, swimming in the creek and relaxing by the falls! Hikers can also bring a dog as long as they are on a leash.

Indian Maiden Falls

- Distance: 9.2 miles total out & back
- Elevation gain: 2250ft
- Difficulty rating: 5
 - This is no hike for the faint of heart! Gorgeous waterfalls, rivers and views capture your eyes as you make a technical, exposed to the sun descent into West Clear Creek. The trail descending into the canyon can be slippery due to the loose rock.

McDonald Trail

- Distance: .9 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 334ft
- Difficulty rating: 1

- Near Camp Verde, this hike offers hikers to scramble around a set of caves. The trail may pose a challenge for some as there is loose rock scattered around making footing difficult at times.

Montezuma Castle National Monument

- Distance: .4-miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 22ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Accessible all year around allows one to gaze in awe at the cliff dwellings that was once called home to the indigenous peoples who lived there. Dogs are welcome on this trail but MUST be on leash.

Rockin River Ranch State Park

- Distance: 1.7 miles on an out and back trail.
- Elevation gain: 52ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Great for all skill levels, this hike also allows for the chance to see wildlife! Low mileage, hardly any variation, you can take your time and take in all mother nature has to offer on this lovely stroll.

Verde Rim Loop Trail

- Distance: 14.3 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 2808ft
- Difficulty rating: 5
 - This trail is a lightly trafficked one, but it is sure worth it! The views throughout the entire hike are outstanding, and the beautiful flowers will help one appreciate the peaceful nature even more.
 - An added bonus is the fact hikers can bring dogs to experience this beautiful and serene hike. Like most hikes, dogs must be on leash.

White Bridge to Beasley

- Distance: 9.3 miles on a point to point trail.
- Elevation gain: 117ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
 - Great scenic views wait for hikers as the hike along a long easy trail that is great for all levels of hikers. Accessible all year around!