

Page Hikes

Antelope Canyon

- Distance: 0.6 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gained: 91ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Another geological location that offers a ton of WOW-factor on this hike. To access antelope canyon there is a $40-$68 tour fee.

Hanging Garden Trail

- Distance: 1.2 miles on an out and back trail (Total Distance 2.4 miles)
- Elevation gained: 62ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Accessible all year around, the trail features a lake and is a welcoming introduction to hikers of all levels. Dogs are allowed on this trail (on leash). We highly recommend checking out the flora/fauna on this pleasant walk.

Horseshoe Bend Trail

- Distance: 1.5 miles on an out and back trail (Total distance 3 miles total)
- Elevation gained: 242ft
- Difficulty scale: 1
 - An amazing geologic location offers hikers a chance to gaze upon a gorgeous view. This is a very heavy trafficked place but will not disappoint, dogs are allowed on this trail as long they are on a leash. Accessible all year around.

Lees Ferry/Spencer Trail Lookout

- Distance: 3.8 miles on an out and back trail (Total distance 7.6 miles)
- Elevation gained: 1614ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
 - Along this trail hikers will find rusting equipment, ruins, and a shipwreck as they reach the Grand Canyon. Dogs are allowed on this trail but must be on leash.

Lonely Dell Ranch Historic Site

- Distance: 0.7 miles on an out and back trail (Total Distance 1.4 miles)
- Elevation gained: 6ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - The historical site offers an immense amount of history to those who choose to hike it. Dogs are allowed on the trail but must be on a leash.

Nine Mile Draw Trail

- Distance: 4.7 miles on an out and back trail (Total Distance 9.4 miles)
- Elevation gained: 682ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
 - Once one gets further away from the crowds at horseshoe bend, this will be an amazing trip. The ending location is one you won't forget.

Page Mesa Trail

- Distance 13.1 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gained: 688ft
- Difficulty rating 3
 - For a beginner hiker looking for the chance to start pushing themselves this is a great hike to do so. Amazing scenery combined with beautiful flowers is a great way to enjoy this hike. Dogs are allowed on this trail.

Paria Canyon

- Distance: 5.6 miles on an out and back trail (Total distance 11.2 miles)
- Elevation gained: 249ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
 - This trail is best used during the warmer months of April to October. When down hiking down this trail is used for hiking, camping, and trips to enjoy the nature. Dogs are allowed to use this trail.

Rock Lane Trail

- Distance: 1.9 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gained: 209ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Great for hikers of all skill levels, this trail offers an easy-going trail for a nice walk out after a long day. Dogs are not allowed on trail. This short loop has lots of views, but lots of sun too, so bring the sun protection and plenty of water!

Waterhole Canyon Trail

- Distance: 2.8 miles on an out and back trail (Total distance 5.6 miles total)
- Elevation gained: 305ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
 - Inside a canyon, hikers will find a great and easy trek that features a river. This area is only accessible with a tour company.