

Sedona area Hikes

Airport Mesa Loop Trail

- Distance: 3.2 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 416ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - The end of this trail will offer plenty of great views for all who trek it. Dogs are allowed on this trail but must be on leash. This loop is the perfect hike for a morning in Sedona for any level hiker.

Bear Mountain Trail

- Distance: 4.9 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 1975ft
- Difficulty rating 3
  - This hike features a river to cool off as hikers make a trek to the top. The views won't disappoint at the top! Dogs are allowed on this trail. Don't be fooled by the moderate distance. This is a burner and will provide a great challenge for most hikers. Be prepared with snacks, water, and sun protection.

Bell Rock Trail

- Distance: 3.6 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 318ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
  - A great trail for all levels of hikers looking to get out and explore. The trail is great for the dogs (who must be on leash) and the family for those we are looking to get out for a nice hike.

Boynton Canyon Trail

- Distance: 6.2 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 810ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
  - This trail allows hikers to go on a nice longer hike for the day and gives them the chance to see wildlife along the way. Dogs are allowed on this trail.

Brins Mesa Trail

- Distance: 4.5 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 870
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - Scenic views wait for hikers at the top of this great hike that is amazing for hikers of all levels. Dogs are allowed on this trail but must be on leash.

Broken Arrow Trail

- Distance: 3.2 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 413ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - The perfect hike for an intermediate hiker, enjoy this nice loop with classic Sedona views. Dogs are allowed on leash. Keep an eye out for mountain bikers, but enjoy the abundant wildlife, especially the flowers in spring.

Cathedral Rock Trail

- Distance: 1.2 miles total out and back trail
- Elevation gain: 751ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
  - The trail leading to cathedral rock will not disappoint! Great for any level of hiker. Dogs are allowed but must be on a leash

Courthouse Butte Loop

- Distance: 3.9 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 357ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - Another great trail located in Sedona that is perfect for any level of hikers. Wildlife may be seen on this hike. Dogs are allowed on this trail as long as they are leash.

Devil's Bridge

- Distance: 4.2 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 564ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - Devil's bridge is a must-see while in the Sedona area. This is a great hike for all levels of hikers and offers amazing views and great flowers to look at. Dogs are allowed on this trail but must be on leash. This is one of the more popular hikes, so start early! We recommend sturdy hiking shoes, water, and sun protection.

Doe Mountain Trail

- Distance: 1.5 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 492ft
- Difficulty rating: 1
  - Another great trail in Sedona that is welcoming to anyone who is looking to get out. This trail is great for its wildflowers and its views. Dogs are allowed but must be on a leash

Fay Canyon Trail

- Distance: 2.6 miles total out and back

- Elevation gain: 383ft
- Difficulty rating: 2
  - Hikers who take this trail will love what is at the end of the trail! Accessible all year, dogs are allowed on this trail. With little variation, all hikers will love this walk with beautiful Sedona views.

Honanki Heritage Site

- Distance: 0.6 miles total out and back trail
- Elevation gain: 354ft
- Difficulty rating:1
  - The end of the hike offers hikers a glimpse into the past of cliff dwellings and how stunning they are to us today! Dogs are not allowed on this trail.

Margs Draw Trail

- Distance: 4.0 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 393ft
- Difficulty rating:2
  - Accessible all year around, this a great hike for hikers of all levels and offers great views at the top. Dogs are allowed on the hike but must be on leash

Secret Canyon

- Distance:14.7 miles on a point to point trail
- Elevation gain: 1627ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
  - On a point to point trail, hikers must have a car waiting for them at the other end of the trail. This trail is great because of the waterfalls that are seen during it. Best used during the months of November to April.

Soldiers Pass Trail

- Distance:4.1 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 620ft
- Difficulty rating:2
  - Another trail that is great for all levels of hikers in the Sedona area. The amazing views will be waiting for you at the top. Dogs are allowed on this trail but must be on a leash.

Sterling Pass Trail

- Distance: 3 miles on a loop trail
- Elevation gain: 1804ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
  - Best to take this trail between April until November. This is a gradual steep hike so make sure to wear the right footwear and be prepared to be tired! Dogs are allowed on trail.

West Fork Trail

- Distance: 7.2 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 820ft
- Difficulty rating: 3
  - This trail is great for those looking to escape the heat and jump into a river that is waiting at the bottom. Accessible all year around and dogs are allowed but must be on leash.

Wilson Mountain Trail

- Distance: 11.5 miles total out and back
- Elevation gain: 2805
- Difficulty rating: 4
  - One of the more difficult hikes on this list, Wilson Mountain is not for the faint hearted. This is a great trail for people looking to push their limits and to look at the views once at the top. Dogs are allowed on trail but must be kept on leash.