

Show-Low/Pinetop Hikes

Buena Vista Trail

Distance: 10 miles on a loop (with options to make it shorter)

Elevation gain: 1,220 feet

Difficulty rating: 3

- Notes: This lovely walk in the woods is well shaded, and features plenty of wildlife, including wild horses (on the right day). There is a mix of single track hiking as well as walking along a 4x4 road. There are options for cutting this hike a little shorter with cross trails.

Fool Hollow Lake Trail

Distance: 3.2 miles total, out and back

Elevation gain: 72 feet

Difficulty rating: 2

- Notes: Perfect for beginner hikers, walk along the lake for maximum wildlife viewing. There is a $10 fee to get into the park here, so pack a lunch and enjoy the whole day by the lake.

Los Caballos Trail

Distance: 14.6 miles on a loop

Elevation gain: 1,213 feet

Difficulty rating: 4

- Notes: If it weren't for the distance, this trail would be much more moderate. But strap on your boots and pack plenty of water and snacks for this adventure! There will be plenty of wildlife to view, with a lot of direct sunlight, so bring the sun screen. Most of this loop is on 4x4 trails, so it can get muddy after a snow melt or rain storm.

Los Burros Trail

Distance: 13 miles on a loop

Elevation gain: 1,253 feet

Difficulty rating: 4

- Notes: This trail is for the experienced hiker looking for a fun challenge, with beautiful scenery. This hike features incredible wildflowers, plenty of shade, and lots of wildlife. This trail is open any time of year. Dogs are welcome, but must be kept on leash.

Mogollon Rim Interpretive Trail

Distance: 1 mile total, on a loop

Elevation gain: 59 feet

Difficulty rating: 1

Campus Recreation

- Notes: This heavily visited trail has so much to see and learn about in a short distance. It's incredibly easy to access and has some incredible panoramic views, especially at sunset. With roughly 17 interpretive stops, there's a lot packed into this short adventure.

Show Low Bluff Trail

Distance: 1.1 miles total, out and back

Elevation gain: 16 feet

Difficulty rating: 1

- Notes: A great short trail to kick off your morning, or a perfect stroll to enjoy with a small pup or toddler. There's a nearby creek for a little off-trail adventure, and a disc golf course along the way to add to the adventure.

Timber Mesa Trail

Distance: 7.2 miles on a loop

Elevation gain: 587 feet

Difficulty rating: 3

- Notes: Enjoy this relaxing nature walk through mixed vegetation. There is little variation, so don't let the distance scare you away! Bring your pup (on leash) and enjoy the scenic views this mesa has to offer.

Woodland Lake Outer Loop Trail

Distance: 3.8 miles on a loop (but plenty of options to make it shorter)

Elevation gain: 223 feet

Difficulty rating: 1

- Notes: This trail is great for an easy lake-side stroll or a fun day checking out the wildlife with young kids. About 1 mile is paved along the water, so it's easily accessible to all folks looking for some fresh air and shady spots to relax.
