	Policy Title: 1. Procurement General Provisions and Definitions

Policy

Under Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.) § 41-2501.F, the Arizona Board of Regents is mandated to establish rules that outline procurement policies and procedures, ensuring they are substantially similar to those detailed in A.R.S. Chapter 23. The Arizona Board of Regents Policy Manual, specifically Article H-University Procurement Code, sets forth procurement policies for the Arizona Board of Regents in alignment with A.R.S. requirements.

Section 3-801 of the University Procurement Code provides general provisions for Procurement. This University Policy supplements such Section 3-801.

All University Procurements, regardless of funding source, will be made in accordance with applicable state statutes, federal regulations, and policies of the Arizona Board of Regents and the University. CPRM has delegated authority to administer the University Procurement Code. The University's Chief Procurement Officer has the central responsibility to establish policies and procedures that will assist the University with Procurement activities as prescribed by the University Procurement Code.

Section I: Applicability

- A. University Procurement Code is applicable to all Procurements made by the University.
- B. University Policies are established in accordance with the University Procurement Code.
- C. The Code of Federal Regulations §§200.317 through 200.326 sets forth requirements for Procurements involving expenditures of federal monies.
