Room	Session Title/Organization	Presenters	Description
Abineau	Arizona Business & Education Coalition – Early Career Exploration/Advising/Planning	Deb Raeder, Larissa Hofman	The ABEC project is designed to help younger students understand possible career aspirations and seamlessly transverse from middle school into high school, into postsecondary education or training, and successful entry into the workforce with the understanding of personal aspirations guiding the way. This includes providing students with an understanding of the importance of making rigorous course selection in high school that ensures preparation for postsecondary education and future careers.

Fremont	Center for the Future of Arizona – Beat The Odds School Leadership Academy	Peter Boyle, Becky Hiner	The BTO Academy is a locally delivered, research-based executive leadership training for aspiring and current school leaders across Arizona. The curriculum is the nationally recognized National Institute for School Leadership (NISL) Executive Development Program that draws on the strongest leadership development practices from education, business, and the military. NISL’s research- and evidence-based curriculum is delivered to groups of 10-30 aspiring and current school leaders who come together over 12-18 months for in-depth job-embedded executive development.
Doyle	Be A Leader Foundation – Postsecondary Transition Programming	Soilo Felix, Jessica Solis, Betsy Munoz, Kerri Warren	BALF focuses on increasing the number of Arizona students who are supported through the often-daunting financial aid and college application/enrollment process. BALF accomplishes this through Postsecondary Transition Programming currently impacting over 1,000 high school seniors attending Maricopa County high schools.
Rees	ICF - Empowering Tomorrow's Leaders: Exploring the 5E High School Program and Sustainable Future Initiatives	Johnavae Campbell, Ph.D., Chuck Dervarics, Samira Rajeshyal, Vanessa Morales, ICF	*This session is open only for attendees from our 5E High Schools (Amphitheater, Buckeye Union, Coronado, Tonopah, and Youngker). Participants representing 5E high school partnerships will engage in a session led by program evaluators, ICF. Together, the team will delve into the achievements of the GEAR UP grant program, exploring its impact on college-access outcomes. 5E high school teams will also participate in conversations culminating in a focused dialogue on the formulation of sustainability objectives.
