ACADEMIC DISHONESTY VIOLATIONS as listed are subject to disciplinary actions under the NAU Academic Integrity Policy. Check all reported violations:

- Cheating: intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, technology, or study aids in any academic exercise such as an examination, paper, or other assignment
- Fabrication/Fraud: intentional and unauthorized creation or invention of information, data, or citation in an academic exercise.
- Facilitation: assisting, supporting, conspiring, or colluding with others to engage in any form of Academic dishonesty.
- Falsification: manipulating materials, equipment, or processes, or changing or omitting information or data such that the results of an academic exercise are not accurately represented or reported.
- Obtaining an unfair advantage: engaging in activities that directly or indirectly compromise the fair assessment of a student’s work or that unfairly constrain or impede another student’s ability to complete an assignment on equal terms.
- Plagiarism: Using or representing another’s original words, ideas, materials, or other creative output as one’s own and not giving proper credit to the author or source.
- Self-Plagiarism: Using one’s own words, ideas, expressions, productions, or other creative output from prior work without proper citation to the previous work and appropriate permission from the instructor

Description of the Academic Dishonesty:

RECOMMENDED ACADEMIC INTEGRITY SANCTIONS. Sanctions for academic integrity violations shall align with the principles of the Academic Integrity Policy; in particular, sanctions should be commensurate with the violation committed by the student. Check all recommended sanctions:

- Written warning to the student.
- Reduced grade on the assignment or examination.
- Award grade of “F” or “zero” on the assignment or examination.
- Reduce the grade in the course by one letter.
- Award a failing grade in the course.
- Termination of Employment/Internship/Placement (if applicable).
- Other; provide details in text box below.

A student may not drop a course involved in the academic integrity process. A faculty member may not drop a student from a course involved in the academic integrity process until a final determination has been made with regard to alleged violations and any related sanctions.
